the customs followed by Oriental people, to whom ice is almost wholly unknown, but who succeed in keeping their drinking water delightfully cool and refreshing. The two simple principles, says an exchange, on which they act, are, first, that water may be kept cool by keeping it from the air; and, secondly, that it may be kept cool by keeping it in the air. And so they use two kinds of water jugs; one on the principle of the tea-cozy, in which water is kept nearly at the same temperature at which it was at the same temperature at which it was drawn, and the other made of porous clay, so that by evaporation the water is reduced to a still lower temperature. "The Japanese, who depend for their drinking water upon wells, filter it through a sand filter or a charcoal machine, and then store it it away in close ly covered wooded pails or pottery jars in the coolest places to be found. The Spanish, Portuguese and Indian people draw their water from wells and foun tains into terra-cotta water coolers; and some of them add to its coolness by putting large ferns into the jars. A Question of Husiness.

A grapevine "special telegram" from Morgantown, published in the Register, quotes Colonel Robinson, of Mineral county, as saying that one reason why Mr. Elkins would not be a formidable candidate for Congress against Mr. Wilson, is the fact that he is "not a West Virginian by birth or association." From this we infer that in the ovent of Mr. Elkins' nomination the carpet bag cry is to be raised. The readers of the Intelligences will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors haves omuch faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it falls to care. Send for list of testimonial. Address,
